MUDJJ Issues Formal Rejoinder to UN Security Council Session, Demands Recognition as Haiti's Government-in-Waiting

PORT-AU-PRINCE, HAITI — In response to the United Nations Security Council session of July 20, 2026, MUDJJ (Movement Unforgettable Dessalines Jean-Jacques) today released a formal diplomatic rejoinder presenting evidence of corruption, gang collusion, and governance failure by the Fils-Aimé government.

The document, titled "The International Community Must Sever Ties with Haiti's Corrupt Political Class," outlines:

- A $60 million/year contract with Erik Prince's Vectus Global signed without parliamentary approval
- 1,243 civilian deaths from drone strikes, with zero gang leaders captured
- Allegations of sexual assault by Kenyan police deployed to Haiti — warnings issued by MUDJJ were ignored

- The Kenscoff massacre where 61 residents, including 14 children, were killed while government officials were abroad
- The systematic suppression of the Haitian people's right to peaceful protest

"The person who created the problem cannot be the one to bring the solution," said Eliphete Joseph, President of MUDJJ. "The international community must stop funding the system of occupation and support a genuine, Haitian-led transition with Emmanuel G. Morel as Prime Minister."

MUDJJ and its coalition NSA (Nou Se Ayiti) have formally endorsed Emmanuel G. Morel as Prime Minister — a 30-year anti-corruption investigator with a clean record and no ties to the corrupt network that has destroyed Haiti.

The organization is requesting an urgent, formal meeting with UN leadership, CARICOM, the U.S. Senate, and the OAS to present its comprehensive governance framework and security plan.

"We are not seeking to be a passive subject of discussion," Joseph stated. "We are seeking to be an active partner in the solution. Haiti's future cannot be further delayed."
